

Disappointed In Search; Team Saves Life In High Sierras

The largest and most expensive search and rescue effort ever made by the Sierra Madre Team ended in disappointment Sunday night, August 2, when the members returned after a week long search in vain for two teenage boys missing in the cruel Mexican desert of Baja California.

The tiny group of mountain men put all they had into the search but failed to find a trace of Dean Slaughter of Santa Susana and Steven Bunch, 17, of Canoga Park who vanished while on a cactus-hunting trip in the area.

The Sierra Madreans were launched into the search after the distressed parents of the boys contacted the Team. They said they had sought help from other agencies only to be turned down. But somewhere along the line they had heard of the small group of mountain men who never refused if there was any chance of saving a life. The mothers' tears and the fathers' pleading touched the hearts of the mountain men and they plunged into the largest area search in the Team's history. Sixteen men against 55,629 square miles of desolate cactus studded land.

From the beginning the search was fraught with obstacles and frustrations. Border regulations, lack of communications and transportation were but a few facing operations leader Jim Ware. Every member of the Team left in town went to Ware's home to take their turns and help in the week long vigil.

Under the flaming skies pilots Dixon Collins of Sierra Madre and John Buell of Riverside with members of the team would scan the back country and follow the rutted dirt roads that seemed to wander aimlessly into the hot interior. The search was centered upon finding the red 1952 Chevy pickup truck which the boys were driving when they crossed the border. The pilots of the two light planes would fly through thundershowers to land at the tiny dirt air strips where the members of the Sierra Madre Team would hike, often miles to remote villages to ask and to seek any information about the youths. Every lead was followed, every town was reached but always at the end, failure.

The tiny group of mountain men far from their environment and the mountains they know, where putting up a great but losing fight against the silent, bitter land. The very poverty of the people had a depressing effect as they wandered from town to town in search of the missing boys.

Perhaps the greatest thrill of the entire search came Thursday morning when two U.S. Army search planes circled overhead. The roar of the motors and silver wings flashing in the sun was a welcome sight to the lonely bunch of mountain men. Somehow the operations leaders back home had gained the help of the Western Air Rescue Center.

With the Air Force were two para-medics from the Riverside Mountain Rescue Team. With renewed efforts the search continued. The large army planes swooping low over the land, the rear doors open so the para-medics could bail out if an

Jones Sewing Machine Co. Presents Wonderful Prize

What ambitious young mother of ten year old twin girls wouldn't be "dog-gone" delighted with the gift of a brand new Neco Vista-Matic zig-zag sewing machine? That's the way Mrs. Barbara Alm feels today, and all because "dogs have always liked me," she said.

Mrs. Alm was presented her machine last Friday morning by the Jones Sewing Machine Co. Mrs. Bertha Devonshire, who, with her husband, James, owns and operates the authorized dealership for Necchi-Elna machines at 341 N. Lake in Pasadena, made the presentation.

If you happened to be watching the Truth or Consequences TV show which was aired Aug. 5, you would have seen Mrs. Alm, a vivacious housewife and mother from Glendale, win out over her opponent by enticing the greatest number of pedigreed canines into an open faced pen on the stage of Art Linkletter's popular audience-participation show. Mrs. Alm explained her "consequence." "They led these six dogs onto the stage," she said, "small dogs, big dogs and in between. While Mr. Linkletter explained what was to be done, I hastily allowed all the dogs to take a good sniff of me. He feared I wasn't listening to instructions, but I was listening, and at the same time allowing the dogs to realize I was their friend. The six dogs were released in the audience and from our places on the stage, my opponent and I whistled and called, coaxed and beg-

Art Exhibit At Public Library

Those of you who didn't get to visit the June Exhibition of Ramon Lopez will be given a second chance to get to see six of his modern oil paintings at the Sierra Madre Public Library during the month of August.

Choice of colors, form and space relationship are bringing favorable comment.

Robert Sailer Studies Abroad For Senior Year

Robert O. Sailer, 681 Gatewood Lane, Sierra Madre, departed from International Airport August 7, for one year's study abroad.

A senior at La Salle High School, Pasadena, Robert will be greeted at Kennedy Airport, New York, by his father Othmar W. Sailer. Father and son will spend several days visiting former friends, the New York World's Fair and the New England states.

Next stop for Robert will be Dublin, Ireland, and a visit with his 89 year old grandfather. With his cousins as guides he will sight-see through the Irish countryside. Then on to London for one week to participate in several of the Shakespearean 400th birthday celebrations, tours and plays.

Continuing with his travel plan, Robert will be greeted in Marseille, France by his French pen pal, Georges Konyountzakakis, who is also a French Boy Scout, with whom Robert has been corresponding for four years. Living with this French family, Robert and his friend Georges will make trips to Monaco and throughout southern France. After a week's visit in Paris, Robert will fly to Geneva, Switzerland, to become better acquainted with his Swiss cousins and to attend the Swiss National Exhibition. In St. Gallen, Switzerland, Robert will be hosted by his great aunt and uncle.

Then in Zugerberg, Switzerland Robert will settle down for one year of study, concentrating on the study of several languages. During school vacation and during the three months following his graduation, Robert will host through the continent, the Scandinavian countries, Greece, and northern Africa.

As a resident of Sierra Madre for eight years, Robert graduated from St. Rita's School. He was awarded the rank of Eagle Scout with the Bronze and Silver palms, was the recipient of the Ad Altra Dei award, and was elected to the honorary Boy Scout Order of the Arrow. During his scouting days, Robert attended the 1960 National Boy Scout Jamboree in Colorado Springs and spent two weeks at an Explorer Scout at the famous Philmont Ranch in New Mexico.

Attending La Salle High School for three years, he was a member of the National Honor Society, the school tennis team, the Glee Club, the French Club, L'Allee Collegienne, and the French National Honor Society. Robert acted as a photographer and reporter

Local Police Save Tot From Mishap

A near tragedy was averted last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Frank Carlson, 371 N. Adams, by the prompt and untiring efforts of two of our Sierra Madre police officers. At 3:10 p.m. a call was received from Mrs. Pamela Wallace of 334 N. Grove, reporting that her 2½-year-old daughter, Teri, had drowned.

When Officers Leonard Carnighan and Douglas Tucker arrived at the scene, they found Mr. Carlson kneeling over little Teri, who was blue and showed no signs of life. Officer Carnighan, assisted by Officer Tucker, immediately started artificial resuscitation. After a faint gurgle was heard from the tiny victim, they continued extensive resuscitation for approximately 42 minutes. During this time, the results were gradual but satisfactory, and by the time Dr. H. Axelrod arrived, little Teri was crying in a boisterous manner. Upon the request of Dr. Axelrod, the officers took Teri to St. Luke Hospital for further observation.

This almost fatal accident happened in the brief ten minutes that Teri was left alone playing on a swing near the pool. When her mother returned to the area, she found the little girl floating face down in the pool, but thanks to the efforts of Officers Carnighan and Tucker, Teri was back at her home Sunday night in good and healthy condition.

Republican Quarters Open In S.M.

A Republican Headquarters for Sierra Madre has recently been opened in the building where the Osti Nursery was, next door to The Highlander on Sierra Madre Blvd. The headquarters will be open only on Saturdays from 10 to 6 until Sept. 17. From then on it will be open six days a week for all Republicans, and Democrats favoring the Republican ticket, to obtain campaign material and information.

The deadline for registration is Sept. 10 and for information concerning it or voting instructions, the phone number is EL 6-1017.

Narcovich Family Has Two Winners

Nancy Narcovich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul J. Narcovich of 1460 Old House Rd., won first place in the Los Angeles County Swimming Championships held at the John Anson Ford Pool in Bell Garden, August 8. She won first place in the 50 meter butterfly and first place in the 50 meter backstroke. She was also a member of the 200 meter freestyle relay team that won a second place, and so she was awarded two trophies and a medal for her swimming.

Joel Narcovich, Nancy's brother, was also a member of two relay teams. His 200 meter medley relay team took first place, and his 200 meter freestyle team took a second place, so he won two medals.

By taking first place in these events, Nancy and Joel qualified for the All Southern California Swim Finals to be held August 22 at the city of Commerce. On August 15 they will compete at the El Monte Invitational Meet, sponsored by Kiwanis members of El Monte.

4-Way Stop Ordered; Tax Rate Expected To Be $9.26

1964 Uniform Building Code Adopted; Effective 30-Days

L.A. Health Code Held Over 30-Days; Reclaimed Water Decision Coming Up

By action of the City Council Tuesday evening in the adoption of Ordinance Number 733, the order was issued for a four-way stop sign at Boulevard and Sunnyside. This is the corner where Patricia Lambert was fatally hit, and Cathy Wright is still in a coma at St. Luke's Hospital, the accident taking place on June 8. The Ordinance will be published in the Sierra Madre News on August 20, and will become effective 30 days thereafter, however, City Administrator Bevington stated that the stop signs and marked crosswalks will be installed prior to school opening on September 14. This action of the Council has satisfied a petition presented to the Council and signed by over 450 citizens asking for this action.

Individual Assessments Published

Richard Nevins alerted Los Angeles County taxpayers to be on the lookout for publication of assessed values which will appear in Los Angeles County newspapers within a few weeks.

The Southern California member of the Board of Equalization, speaking at a luncheon meeting of the North Long Beach Exchange Club, stated that the assessed value of one-fifth of the Los Angeles County real estate parcels must be published in addition to all changes in the balance of the county. Listings will be by map book areas, street addresses, and assessor names.

Nevins explained that the publication of the assessed values is the result of a new State law requiring notification by the County Assessor. The assessed value on all parcels in the County must be published within five years when the County selects this method of notification.

Assessed values for specific map books will be published in the circulation areas of the respective community newspapers as prescribed by the County Tax Collector some time in September.

Nevins, the chairman of the Board of Equalization, said that the publication of the assessed values will be a "blessing" to the public schools. Although this section of the Code has been in operation for 15 to 20 years, and as reported by the Health Board has never had any objections, the Council still felt, due to the opposition that the matter should be held over for 30 days so that it could be thoroughly investigated, and several points clarified.

WE ARE SORRY

We are extremely sorry, but last week in the speculative story on the new tax rate that would be evident for property owners of Sierra Madre, we left out three important tax items, namely Flood Control, Sanitation District, and the Water Agencies. The tax rate as reported was approximately $8.72 per $100 valuation. A much closer figure, taking into consideration the items above will be $9.26 per $100 valuation. Business houses as reported at approximately $10.50 per $100 valuation is about accurate.

INACTIVE FUND

In the Finance Department, the Treasurer's Report was received and ordered filed. $50,000 was returned to the Inactive Fund, since City finances did not require its use at this time. This makes a total of $400,000 in the inactive fund that the City is earning interest from, which helps to alleviate taxes against property owners and business houses. The investment of these funds accounts for approximately 10 to 12 thousand dollars per year.

Further, the yearly trans-

Joe A. Hinojos New Commander Legion Post 280

Joe A. Hinojos, World War II veteran, was installed as commander of East Pasadena American Legion Post 280 last Saturday night.

Hinojos served in the infantry, military intelligence, public relations, and as photographer on the staff of "Panorama" an army newspaper started by the late General Joseph W. Stilwell.

Hinojos who returned to commercial photography succeeds retiring commander Leo Bracewell. Other newly elected officers were: Harry Gorham, first vice commander; Ray Goldsmith, second vice commander; Bill Y. Shinmoto, finance officer; E. H. Brockelmann, adjutant; Alva Barker, chaplain; Phil Adams, sergeant at arms; Don Richardson, assistant sergeant at arms; Sam Lieberman, historian; LeRoy Dill, service officer; Eugene F. Pitroff, judge advocate.

Road Fund Given To Monrovia

The County Board of Supervisors today approved an additional allocation of $21,985 to assist the City of Monrovia in improving Duarte Road between Fifth Avenue and Mayflower Avenue within the City, according to Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli.

In December, 1963, the Board made available the sum of $28,399.61 to the City of Monrovia for the purpose of acquiring the necessary right of way for this improvement. In July of this year, the City notified the County Road Department that the additional funds, making a total of $50,384.61, would be required for the needed right of way.

Supervisor Bonelli noted, "This type of cooperation

Bahama Lanes, Real Enjoyment

Registration For League Play Now Being Taken

One of the most enjoyable exercises is bowling, and in the Sierra Madre area we have one of the finest bowling alleys that can be maintained. Bahama Lanes, located in the Foothill-Rosemead Shopping Center, at 3545 Foothill, managed by Art Goddard, is constantly on the alert to hold tournaments and contests that will be enjoyable to all.

The newest one, starting September 27, is the Bahama Breakfast Club, league, with registration fees set at only three dollars, you receive bowling blouse, bowling shirt, weekly trophies and season winners, and at the end of the league play, a bowling banquet. League play starts on Sunday mornings at 10:30, first one being September 27, and registrations are now open and being received.

Other attractions at this alley is Ladies Day which is held every Thursday morning at 10 a.m. with bowling, free games and dinner, with fun for all.

The alley is also accepting winter league reservations, and to show you the fun and enjoyment that can be had, if you will clip the coupon, found elsewhere in this issue of the paper you will be given absolutely free one game when you bowl and pay for three.

Free instruction classes are held regularly, and to fully enjoy this sport you are asked to call EL 5-3326, and either Art Goddard or his assistant will answer all your questions and arrange you for league play and enjoyment.

Steak Dinner Enjoyed By Sierra Madre Fire Dept.

Members of the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department along with wives and friends gathered at the home of Fire Chief Charles E. Brown last Saturday night for an outdoor steak dinner.

The occasion was for one member who was retiring, another who was leaving, and to present a badge to another.

Ralph Tweedell was presented with a plaque for his 26 years of service on the department. Roland Gutherz was given a farewell present, he is going to northern California to teach. Joseph Grippi was presented with the traditional 20 year gold badge awarded to all members who serve 20 years on the department. There are 4 active members on the department who have served 20 years or more. The above presentations were made by Fire Chief Charles E. Brown.

The equipment of the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department consists of three triple combination pumps. The 1955 Crown is the newest piece of equipment, it has a 1250 gallons per minute pumping capacity. It also carries 350 gallons of water. The next is a 1946 Seagraves pumper with a 750 gallon pumping capacity. It carries 300 gallons of water. The last is a 1946 American Le France with a 750 gallon capacity.

All the equipment is furnished by the city. The cost of operating the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department during the last fiscal year was slightly over $25,000.

Plans and specifications for a new 1250 gallon pumper are in the planning stage.

Young Democrats Meet Aug. 12

The Foothill Young Democrats' organizational meeting will be held Wednesday, August 12, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., at the home of Sharon Noble, 2206 Lambert Dr., Pasadena, according to temporary president Harris Freeman.

The evening's highlight will be a talk by 20th Congressional District Democratic Candidate C. Bernard Kaufman, on plans for the Democratic National Convention and the developing controversy over the seating of the Mississippi delegation.

All interested high school students in the Pasadena area are invited.

For additional information call Harris Freeman, 797-2335.

Probably the best naturally qualified person for this position would be a young woman, attractive enough to throw the windbags off guard and intelligent enough to look as stupid as the average voter. She should be politically independent, be able to write, of course, and she should be free to attend all the rallies, luncheons, dinners, etc., that the editor is unable to attend.

She should have no religious, racial or political prejudices (this will narrow the field considerably), and she should have intuition sharp enough to exploit those qualities successfully. Since no editor wants to become entangled in any future commitments, she would be allowed to accept payola only from sure losers.

An applicant for the job should be one who derives such satisfaction from writing that she doesn't expect to be paid. Hiring paid columnists is a luxury that few weekly editors can allow themselves. She should, however, be able to get in a lot of free meals and to cadge a lot of free drinks. When there was no political shindig to cover, she could use her press card to attend other functions. A newspaper press card is generally honored at such gatherings as dog shows, band concerts, fires and church rummage sales.

New Arrivals in the Sierra Madre Area

There are four children now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Huber of 59 Esperanza, Sierra Madre. On July 22 they proudly announced the birth of Miss Amy Elizabeth, weighing 7 pounds 13 ounces, at Methodist Hospital.

Amy's sister and brothers are Anne, 6 years old, Stephen, 2½, and Michael, 1½. Their happy maternal grandmother is Mrs. Kathleen Bruggen of Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

July 28 was a wonderful day for Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cowan when they happily welcomed their first child. Their little daughter, Kimberly Kae weighed 8 pounds 9½ ounces when she was born at the Sierra Madre Community Hospital.

The very proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Kirksey of Pasadena, and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cowan of San Bernardino.

Mr. and Mrs. William Plumlee of 191 N. Baldwin, Sierra Madre, became the proud parents of William Vincent Plumlee II on July 27. Their new son weighed 7 pounds 3 ounces when he was born at the Sierra Madre Community Hospital.

The Plumlees also have a 16 year old daughter, Carol. Their happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Plumlee of Sierra Madre, Mrs. Irma B. Wendling of Arcadia, and Mr. R. E. Wendling of Phoenix, Ariz.

Young Julie Anne, 21 months, joyfully greeted her new sister Lori Jean at home. She was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miner of 1260 Rexford Avenue, Pasadena on the 27th of July at the Saint Luke Hospital.

The grandparents of the beautiful 5 pound 14 ounce baby girl share their greetings from a distance. They are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sankbeil Jr. of Canton, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Miner of Medina, Ohio.

Kori Janette is a cheerful addition to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Jensen of 25 Sierra Place, Sierra Madre. When she was born at the Methodist Hospital in Arcadia, she weighed 5 pounds 15 ounces.

Kori's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Varela and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jensen, both of Oceanside, and Kyle her two year old brother, celebrated her arrival.

Master Steven Paul is the very welcome newcomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmitt in Monrovia, who proudly announced his arrival on July 26. Little Steven weighed a husky 8 pounds 3 ounces when he was born at 10:55 p.m. at Methodist Hospital in Arcadia.

The happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Kauffman, and Mrs. Nancy Schmitt, all of Monrovia.

On July 27, Mr. and Mrs. Richard De Camp of 215 N. Cypress Ave., Monrovia, became the very proud parents of their first child, Richard Allen. Little "Richie" weighed 6 pounds 7 ounces when he put in an appearance at 9:32 a.m. at Methodist Hospital in Arcadia.

Stacy Lynne is the new baby girl that was greeted at home by her three year old sister, Kristine. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shenk, of 1080 Daveric Drive in Pasadena took great pride in announcing the arrival of their 9 pound, 2 ounce daughter, who was born on July 31.

The happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shenk of Monterey Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Friot of San Gabriel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Schaffer, of 660 Alta Vista, Sierra Madre, welcomed the arrival of their new son, Jason Alvin Schaffer. He was born on July 28 at the Huntington Hospital weighing 8 pounds, 2 ounces. Jason's brother, Than Sillmore who is 2, and his grandmother, Mrs. Rosemary De Carle, are most proud.

Local Artists Have New Exhibit At City Hall

Twelve Sierra Madre artists have a new, colorful exhibit in "The Little Gallery" at the City Hall. The exhibit is changed about every three months so that the walls of the Council Room may be kept attractive and interesting for those using the room.

The following artists are currently exhibiting:

Mrs. Fritz (Elinor) Baumeister, "Chinese Figures"; Ray Du Shane "The Octogenarian"; Mrs. William O. (Johanna) Horne, "Still Life"; Mrs. Arthur (Lydia) Maricq, "Lilacs"; "Still Life"; Mrs. Murdo (Bea Ward) McIvor, "Gladiolas"; Mrs. Harry E. (Hazel) Morley, "Sea Gulls."

Also Mrs. Andre (Madeleine Pichard), "The Surging Surf"; "Apple Valley"; Mrs. Marvin (Marguerite) Randolph, "Desert Landscapes"; Cornelia Reimer, "Summer Enchantment"; Renee Tallantyre, "The Old Fiddler"; "Scape"; Catherine Tuttle, "Yellow Iris," and Mrs. E. M. (Myrtle) Weese, "Oak Creek Canyon."

Zonta Club Gives Flyer's Biography To S.M. Library

Through the courtesy of the Zonta Club of Santa Anita Area the Sierra Madre Public Library has received a copy of "Courage Is the Price," a biography of Amelia Earhart, a gallant young aviator of the 30's whose colorful career, climaxed by her mysterious disappearance over the Pacific, has become an American legend. Written by her sister, Muriel Earhart Morrissey, the book traces the heroine's dramatic life from its beginning in the midwest to its tragic end.

Miss Earhart became a member of the Zonta Club of Boston in 1928. Later when she served as vice president of an airline with headquarters in New York, she transferred her membership to the Zonta Club of that city.

Local members of the Zonta Club are Mrs. W. Webster Vannier, Mrs. Thomas Nielsen, Mrs. Sewall Clark, Mrs. Alvin Embree and Mrs. Alyce Herold.

Casa Colina To Hold Sultan's Bazaar

Saturday, Sept. 26, is a day with special meaning for members of the City, Country, Foothill and Quaker Cousins of Casa Colina as members of the four groups are assembling a giant array of merchandise for a "Sultan's Bazaar" in the Club House of Arcadia's Santa Anita Race Track. Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center, marking its 25th year of service to the community, will benefit.

The groups, together with the Board of Directors of Casa Colina, assisted by the hospital's auxiliary, have established warehouse headquarters at 7 E. Huntington Dr., Arcadia, under Mrs. Warren C. Smith of Arcadia, chairman.

Thousands of orange and pink requests for any "treasures and trinkets" the donor can live without have been sent to friends of Casa Colina throughout Southern California, and have resulted, to date, in merchandise ranging from an antique square grand piano, to paintings, clothing and a carved leather horse saddle for a youngster.

Bazaar headquarters is staffed by volunteer help each Monday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Arrangements for merchandise pickup may be made by calling 445-1031 or MU 1-5603 any week day between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. and Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon.

Prior to Saturday's public sale of donated items, participating Cousins groups are planning a black tie dinner and pre-sale at Santa Anita Friday, September 25.

All proceeds will be used for care of needy patients at Casa Colina in Pomona.

Vacation Plans
by Pauline

The Charles Louks, with their granddaughters, Janie Brower from Monrovia and Becky Thompson from Lawrence, Kansas, recently returned from a fabulous three-week vacation through the Northwest, to Canada then to Alaska. They drove up the coast highway through Oregon and Washington to Vancouver. There they boarded the S.S. Yukon Star for the eight day voyage up the Inner Passage to Alaska. At the Captain's Dinner, a costume party, the last night of the trip, Janie and Becky were a big sensation in fact they won first prize in the comedy category. On the return trip from Vancouver, they drove back the inland route, stopping in Reno and then home. Becky will be staying with the Louks for the rest of the summer, enjoying Sierra Madre.

Earlier in the summer Mr. James Dittmar of 601 Mariposa took several Boy Scouts, including his son, Kevin, on a camping trip to the High Sierras. This past week, he also spent camping with his children, Craig, Vaughn and Kadee, and their neighbor, Scott Harris. On this trip they spent three days at Bowen's Ranch in the High Desert, then went on to the Mojave Desert and Red Rock Canyon.

Mt. Alverno Board Monthly Meeting At Snyder Home

The monthly board meeting of Mt. Alverno Guild met at the lovely summer home, on Lido Isle, of Mrs. Earl Snyder, the president, with Sr. M. Aquinas acting as advisor.

Mrs. Willard Chandler, program chairman, announced that an interesting program is planned in the way of an Art Festival for the October meeting at the Villa.

A delightful luncheon was served at the close of the meeting, on the patio court.

Board members attending were Mrs. Willard Chandler, Mrs. John Gyongos, Mrs. A. G. Schweiger, Mrs. Albert Soldate, Mrs. Edmund Smith, Mrs. W. G. Driscoll, Mrs. A. Gaines, Mrs. M. Westfall, Mrs. Harry MacDonough, Mrs. M. Wilker, and Mrs. Herbert Hendrie. All proceeds from the Mt. Alverno Thrift Shop and the Mt. Alverno Guild are given to the Motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Francis of Penance and Christian Charity for the Sisters' Education Fund. These Sisters conduct seven schools and two hospitals in this Archdiocese.

You and Your Neighbor Vacation Plans

by Pauline

Members of the Zonta Club of the Santa Anita Area recently enjoyed an afternoon of viewing the display of local paintings, ceramics, jewelry, etc., at the Laguna Festival of Arts; and in the evening attended the Pageant of Masters after dinner at the Laguna Hotel. This bus tour was arranged by a Zonta member, Mrs. Grace Conner of Conner Tours in Monrovia. Sierra Madre Zonta members who participated in this event were: Mrs. Trudie Clark, Mrs. Lucile Vannier, Mrs. Alyce Herrold and her guest, Mrs. Dorothy Underwood.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gillem had the pleasure of having their son, Dennis, home for two months, following his graduation from West Point in June. This was the longest vacation that Dennis has had in five years, so they really enjoyed every minute of it before putting him on the plane last week for Fort Benning, Georgia, where he will start airborne training. While Dennis was home, the Gillems with their daughters, Connie and Kathleen, attended the wedding of a cousin in Oakland. Their other daughter, Chris, has been spending several weeks at Balboa with friends. Later in the fall Mr. and Mrs. Gillem will be taking another trip to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tolle of 539 E. Grand View recently returned from a delightful, relaxing trip to Canada and Alaska. They flew to Vancouver and boarded the S.S. Yukon Star for an eight day voyage up the Inner Passage to Carcross, Alaska and back. The Yukon Star is a Canadian ship, and the food was just excellent, and the scenery breathtakingly beautiful. One day they left the ship and took a real old narrow gauge train, which followed the original miners' trails to Lake Bennett, where they were served a lunch of moose meat, then on to Carcross. Among the glaciers and icebergs that they saw, was the Mendenhall Glacier in Juneau, Alaska, which is the largest of them all. On the return trip the Tolle's spent three days in Vancouver, and particularly enjoyed seeing the tremendous Stanley Park there, with all its lush greenery.

Victoria Sanders Becomes Bride of Gordon Thompson In Church Wedding

MRS. GORDON ROSS THOMPSON
... nee Victoria Eugenia Sanders

At 10:30 a.m. on July 18, Miss Victoria Eugenia Sanders became the bride of Gordon Ross Thompson at the Church of the Ascension in Sierra Madre. The Rev. Harley G. Smith Jr. performed the ceremony before 150 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Talmage Sanders of Acacia St. and her husband is the son of Mrs. Russell C. Thompson of Montrose and the late Mr. Thompson.

Miss Marilyn Stinson of Omaha, Neb., was maid of honor and Miss Hermione Goldstein and Mrs. Christian Lee Sanders, sister-in-law of the bride, were attendants. Ronald R. Rodine was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Christian Lee Sanders, and the bridegroom's cousin, Robert Brooks Finch Jr.

The bride wore a floor length gown of peau de soie with lace sleeves, and a mantilla of matching lace. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and yellow roses with a cluster of Japhet orchids arranged on a fan of Belgian lace, the gift of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Carol Broman of St. Vith, Belgium. A strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and an heirloom of pearls and sapphires were her accessories.

Her attendants wore street length dresses of Swiss lace in shades of yellow with matching veiled hats of velvet flowers, and carried bouquets of Marguerite daisies and yellow roses.

The bride's mother wore a ciel blue gown trimmed in guipure lace with a matching hat of the lace and organza. Mrs. Thompson wore a two-piece silver blue ensemble with headed embroidery and matching hat of straw and mullin. Both wore white cymbidium corsages.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Edna Gregerson and Dr. Edythe K. M. Hall of Omaha and Mrs. Earl Larsen, the bridegroom's aunt, of Portland, Ore.

After a reception at the church, a luncheon was held in the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party, relatives and close friends. The newlyweds then left for a two-week honeymoon in the Hawaiian Islands. They are now at home in Pasadena.

Myrtle Sanders Succumbs Aug. 8

Myrtle Moore Sanders of 341 Sturtevant Drive, passed away Aug. 8 at the Parkwood Convalescent Hospital. She was originally from Tennessee, but had lived in California for 35 years, and in Sierra Madre for many years. Survivors include her sister, Mrs. W. S. Patch of Sheffield, Ala.

Graveside services were conducted by Mr. John Richards on Aug. 11 at Live Oak Memorial Park.

Arrangements were made by Ripple Mortuary in Sierra Madre.

Is your hair dull and spungy, with broken and split ends and straw-like to the touch? It's a good bet that you suffer from over-bleaching, over-tinting, or perhaps, over-permaning. The treatment, however, poses no great problem for the expert hairdresser. Stimulation, shampooing and conditioning secrets known to the experienced hairdresser will get your hair on the road to safe, certain recovery. One thing to bear in mind, though: Hair subjected to too much bleaching and tinting tends to absorb water quickly due to its porosity. As a result, don't try to shortcut drying by stepping your dryer up too hot.

Hair reconditioning, by the way, is something of a specialty at PETITE BEAUTY SALON. Our staff has beautifully effective treatments for problem hair. Let's get on it soon at PETITE BEAUTY SALON, 185 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. Phone ELgin 5-8041. Our new VAPOZONE machine combines ultraviolet and hydrogen peroxide vapor into a health-giving, cleansing mist which does wonders for the hair, scalp and complexion.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: During the process of hair reconditioning, don't attempt — even think of — a permanent until your hair is again normal.

$70,000. The In Lieu Fund is the money received from the state from license plates on automobiles and wheel vehicles. In Lieu of personal property tax, and can be used only for traffic regulation and maintaining some streets. Because the Payroll Fund, had been cut short due to increases over the past year, and many times running a debit balance at the bank, the Council accepted the transfer of $2,000 from the General Fund to the Payroll Fund.

Personnel

In the Personnel Department, Leo Bell and Charles Trombley were both given reclassifications and upgrading. Further, the Council authorized the expenditure of $340, that Chief of Police James Bala could attend Police Management School and that Larry Adams, Assistant Engineer could attend the Municipal Department Heads Seminar.
The City budgets $2,000 for schooling of employees, and this fund is policed very cautiously so that it is evenly distributed to the various employees that need additional training.

Letters to the Editor...

Dear Editor:
The following is an open letter to the Sierra Madre
Mayor and City Council:
Gentlemen:

We understand that a new proposal has been submitted for subdividing the Willis Tract; and that it is alleged that this overcomes all of the various objections, etc. raised at the time the previous McNulty proposal was denied.

The Foothill Areas Association very strongly urges that this new petition be denied, or at least held in abeyance, until:

(1) The new hillside grading ordinance has become fully effective; making it mandatory that the subdivider comply fully with that ordinance.
(2) The Council has adopted and made effective a new hillside zoning ordinance, based on the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Hillside Committee and the earlier letter from the Foothill Areas Association urging that guidelines be established on any conditional use permit ordinance.
The minimum recommendations of the Hillside Committee, on file with the Council, and as outlined in our previous correspondence are a MUST.

—T. R. STETSON,
President, Foothill
Areas Association

Missouri State Picnic Aug. 23

The annual Missouri State Picnic will be held at Sylvan Park, Redlands, Sunday,
August 23.

All Missourians are urged to "Come early and bring a well filled basket."

Bids for street work were received, and the bid was given the Osborn Constructors in the amount of $18,- 446.25.

The City Attorney was instructed to draw up a five-year lease for the Sierra Madre Nursery School covering the original building and grounds, which expires on August 31.

Sewer Water

A letter from the San Gabriel Valley Municipal Water District requesting a meeting with the City in regards to the use of reclaimed water was ordered answered in that the Ad Hoc Committee was preparing a report to the Council, and that the Council would accept a meeting date approximately 30-days hence.
The Council has already gone on record, in that they will carry the project to the people, by election, should reclaimed water be decided upon.

Safety Check

The Wanderer's Car Club was granted permission to use the City Parking Lot at the rear of Roberts Market for their annual Safety Car
check to be held Saturday,
August 29.

With Councilman Parks and Mayor Sorenson on vacation, Vice-Mayor Abernethy asked for adjournment exactly 1 hour and 15 minutes after the start of the meeting. The next regular meeting will be August 25, and the Planning Commission will meet August 20, both at the hour of 8 p.m.

PARTY UNITY

Now that the primary smoke screen has cleared we must get behind our presidential, vice-presidential, congressional and assembly candidates for election in November. Goldwater, Miller, Lipscomb and Flournoy all deserve our support.
It's not only up to our County Central Committee but to all of us rank and file voters to help the elephant push to victory. It is more important that there be party unity — divergence of opinions, yes — but a mass effort for the ultimate goal of a winning ticket from top to bottom.

TIME FOR A CHANGE

Let's Ring-A-Round for Victory . . . RRV — Recruit, Register, and Vote. Former President Eisenhower says, "For the good of America, Republicans must be restored to controlling positions at all government levels, including the highest — the Presidency of the United States."

DEMOCRATS HAIL GOLDWATER

Representative Passman says, "If Goldwater should be elected President, doubtless history will record him as one of the greatest we've ever had because of his candor and complete homespun honesty."

TO THE DEMOCRATS

Millions are still registered as Democrats. You must realize your party no longer is the party of Jefferson. The Republican Party is the party that now stands for those principals. We ask that you who believe with us, join us in the Republican Party. We need every responsible American who believes in individual responsibility, free enterprise, government controlled by the people rather than people controlled by the government, and fiscal integrity . . . join us now . . . call Headquarters now . . . a registrar will register you.

DID YOU KNOW?

In three years under the Democrats the federal debt has risen by $21,000,000,000.

The Area Redevelopment Administration declares Rice County, Kansas a depressed area . . .
despite its 200 oil wells, 14,000 residents with 30 million in local savings and loan associations
. . . Nearly everyone in the county who wants a job has one, but government will spend your money there whether county likes it or not.

Bible Lessons To Continue Sunday

Continuing a series of Bible Lessons on names which belong to God, the subject at Christian Science services on Sunday will be "Soul."

The Bible readings will include this verse from Psalms: "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

Related readings from the Christian Science textbook will include these lines: "Immortality, exempt from age or decay, has a glory of its own, — the radiance of Soul . . . Beauty is a thing of life, which dwells forever in the eternal Mind and reflects the charms of His goodness in expression, form, outline, and color" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 247).

Legion Auxiliary Meets Aug. 13

The American Legion Auxiliary will be entertained this evening, Thursday, August 13 at the home of Mrs. Theo Proctor, 280 San Gabriel Court.

All chairmen will present reports and the month's business will be conducted at this time.

Bethany

Bethany Church of Sierra Madre will present a new film entitled "In His Steps" at the Sunday evening service, August 9 at 7 p.m. in the church sanctuary, located at 93 N. Baldwin. The 75-minute black and white production is presented by Ken Anderson Films.

The story is an adaptation of the well-known book of the same title written by Charles Sheldon. This best-selling novel has had many printings in English as well as a number of foreign languages. It is a story of lasting value and the film is purposely produced to present the dynamic of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as evidenced by changed lives. It is a story which seeks to portray a realistic picture of life in a world of evil where the Holy Spirit is still operative in the lives of those people who yield to His claims. There are some unhappy endings to the story but through it all the victory of committed lives reveals the power of the living Christ. The public is cordially invited to attend all services of the church.

'Creative Years' Dr. Barnhart's Sermon Aug. 16

"The Creative Years" is the sermon-topical of Dr. Ethel Barnhart at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, Sunday morning, Aug. 16, at both the 9 and 11 o'clock worship services.

Learning to live creatively as the God-being he innately is, brings the joy of fulfillment.

Inspirational music is presented every Sunday by Dr. Irma Glen, organist, and Mr. Mackey Swan, soloist. Child care is provided at both services.

Spiritual education is provided for all ages. Junior Church for children from kindergarten through eighth grade meets at 9 a.m. and the high school youth activity at 7 p.m. every Sunday.

Dr. Adela Rogers St. Johns will be guest speaker at both the 9 and 11 a.m. worship services Sunday, Aug. 23.

Prayer opens the avenue through which the healing power of God flows into manifestation. Call our telephone ministry for help day or night. The number is HL 7-6162.

Rev. Armin Hesse Concludes His Summer Series

In concluding his summer series of sermons on "Timely Messages of the Lord Associated with Unusual Places," the Rev. Armin Hesse will speak on "A Sermon At A Chariot Exodus" in the 8:45 and 10:30 Sunday morning services at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive.

This message, centering on the sixth chapter of the Book of Zechariah, will concern a vision which was given to the Prophet in which four chariots appeared from between two mountains of brass. Harnessed to the first of the four were red horses; to the second, black horses; to the third, white horses; and to the last, speckled and gray horses. The symbolism of these various horses as instruments of divine providence is significant. It was to be meaningful to the liberated and returned exiles in Judea, and to whom Zechariah ministered, and should convey important truths to Christians today, states Rev. Hesse.

Holy Baptism will be administered in the 10:30 service to Laurie Sue, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Husman. In the second service last Sunday, Heidi Elaine Stoll, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Stoll of San Francisco, and Philip Gregory Barnes, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barnes of Sierra Madre, were baptized. The children are cousins.

Next Sunday's Introit will be sung by Mr. Delbert Hartman.

The Children's Vacation Bible School will conclude on Friday morning of this week. Parents and friends are invited to visit the classes and to participate in Friday's closing exercises from 10:30 to 11:30.

Participate In Guerilla Training

Marine Private Michael R. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Johnson of 177 Oak Meadow Rd., Sierra Madre, Calif. recently participated in a counter-guerilla training exercise called "Operation Banana Peel" in the Big Bear region of the San Bernardino National Forest, Calif.

Church Notes

cordially invited to attend the free showing beginning at 7 p.m.

Assistant minister Rev. Hugh S. Bell Jr., will preach at the 11 a.m. service. He is substituting for Dr. Robert N. Schaper, who, with his wife Margaret, is on the east coast preparing for a world tour of missions, stopping first at Brazil to meet with Dewey and Edith Mulholland in Northeast Brazil.

Bethany Church is an interdenominational congregation of evangelical persuasion, seeking to minister to the spiritual needs of all ages.

A complete graded Sunday school convenes at 9:30 each Sunday morning. The youth and adult sections are currently studying the life of Christ through the use of color films shown each Sunday promptly at 9:30. The public is cordially invited to attend all services of the church.

Sierra Madre Rescue Team Disappointed

extreme emergency arose. The combined forces selected certain areas and searched them with care but there was still no signs of the lost boys.

Every single village and every remote road was covered without success. The men's spirits would rise in the morning only to be dashed at night. Finally on Saturday morning with funds running low the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team regretfully called the search off, and the tired and beaten men returned to their Sierra Madre homes, late Saturday night.

But the sting of defeat didn't last long however, for on Sunday night the members were called to the Sierras to find a lost 13 year old boy.

Jack Jansen of 3643 E. Grant Ave., Fresno had wandered away from his parents' campsite and became lost in the rugged land north of Huntington Lake.

After an unsuccessful search by campers and sheriff's deputies the Sierra Madreans were called in to help. They took with them Hezikiah, one of their famed bloodhounds. Flown to the sight in Air Force planes the members joined the search at daybreak. And within two hours Hezikiah tracked the boy's scent to a waterfall, where the boy was found. He said he had chased a deer, became lost and had tumbled down the falls, two and a half miles from the camp.

The boy complained of very sore feet and pains in his leg and hip. After giving first aid the men directed a helicopter into the canyon and flew him to a Fresno hospital. Doctors credited the Sierra Madreans with saving his life. The men reached home early Monday afternoon.

Letters to the Editor

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it—(similar words of Voltaire)

Dear Editor:

How can the members of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team ever thank you, the merchants and the people of Sierra Madre for all their support in the recent fund drive. As you know we exceeded all our expectations.

Every member of the Team appreciates the time you spent, the space you gave in your Sierra Madre News and the energy you spent in making this such a success. There is no doubt that you went all out for the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team. No one could have done any more.

I don't know just what to say, but thank you so very much Mr. Editor for the great part you took in helping our Team.

—BILL WARK
Public Relations
Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Steak Dinner

The work is being done by an equipment committee composed of men on the department. They will visit different fire departments and get literature from the principal fire engine manufacturers, then will plan a pump to suit the specific needs of Sierra Madre. All this will be done on the men's own time in the evenings and weekends.

When completed these plans and specifications will be presented to the city council for approval. This committee also recommends the purchase of other equipment for the department.

The three pumps are put through a rating test each year to make sure they are able to pump their rated capacity. This is done by taking the pumps one at a time to the Monrovia Fire Department test pit. All this work is done on the men's own time. These types of activities are the things that keep the interest of the men on the department.

New members to the department are elected by the regular members. Besides living and working in Sierra Madre, a prospective member must have an employer who is willing to let him leave his employment during working hours. Members are on call 24 hours a day, as long as they are in the city.

Another year has passed and the good people of Sierra Madre and surrounding communities have rallied, and once again have filled our depleted treasury so that we might continue our rescue work.

My personal thanks to you, Mr. Editor, for acting as chairman of such a successful fund drive. We know how impossible it would be to promote such a campaign without the aid of our local press and its editor.

Our special thanks to the Jeldes at the Lodge Coffee Shop, where the waterfall continues to pour around-the-clock support for the team.

Our hats are off to Don Jackson's Men's Shop, Sam Perloff's Royal Drugs, and Lisette's for the terrific campaign they put on and their efforts to make it succeed.

We are humble before the service clubs and friends of Sierra Madre for their faith and support these many years. We pledge that we will never betray you and we will continue to do the best we can to better our team.

Recently we crossed the international line to aid two United States citizens. It cost us money, but friends, we have no state or international boundaries in our rescue work.

—MINER HARKNESS
President,
Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team

Sierra Madreans Average $10,437

Los Angeles County Ranks Sixth In Avg. Gross Income

The average annual adjusted gross income of Californians exceeded $9,000 for the first time in the history of the state according to the taxable personal income returns filed during 1963 with the Franchise Tax Board.

The average annual adjusted gross income reported on taxable returns was $9,061 State Controller Alan Cranston, chairman of the Franchise Tax Board, reported. The average annual income has been increasing each year.

A record number of 3,592,312 Californians filed taxable returns during 1963, reported a record taxable adjusted gross income of $32,497,633,303, and paid the state a record of $308,826,337 in personal income taxes.

The statistical information is contained in the latest annual report of the Franchise Tax Board which was presented to Governor Edmund G. Brown this week by chairman Cranston.

For the sixth consecutive year, Marin County residents reported the highest average taxable adjusted personal income at $10,770. Second and third, also for the sixth consecutive year, each were Santa Mateo County with $10,233 and Santa Barbara County with $9,952.

Los Angeles County residents reported personal adjusted gross income on taxable returns averaging $9,252, Cranston said. This would rank as sixth among California's 58 counties. The total taxable adjusted gross income reported in the county was $13,436,788,250. Sierra Madreans are reported to have an average of $10,437.

The statistical information is contained in the latest annual report of the Franchise Tax Board which was presented to Governor Edmund G. Brown this week by chairman Cranston.

Mr. Kenneth Boulette of National City, will be their guest speaker for the evening. His subject will be "Ferns in General" illustrated with slides. This should be very interesting as ferns are beautiful both in the greenhouse and in the shade gardens. Also, they used more and more in the different flower shows.

There will be a pot-luck supper before the meeting at 7 p.m. The regular meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Members are requested not to forget to take articles for the white elephant table. The San Gabriel Valley Begonia Flower Show was beautiful and lots of entries and quite a few ribbons and trophies were won. There were quite a number of members from other branches who went to the show which was held on July 18 and 19 at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum in Arcadia.

for the school newspaper (the Lance) and for the school yearbook (the Centurion).

Upon his return to the states, Robert will join his family in Connecticut and plans to enter an eastern university to continue his studies.

Individual Assessment

The Board of Equalization's Committee on Assessment Practices, emphasized the importance of checking the assessment lists. Other than visiting the Assessor's office, it will be the taxpayer's only way of learning assessed values in time to file an appeal petition protesting his assessed value for tax purposes. Taxpayers are responsible for finding out the assessed value on their property.

The taxpayer who feels his assessment is too high, may file an appeal for a hearing before the newly created three-man Tax Appeals Board from September 23 until November 23. Petition forms may be obtained from the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors during this period. The hearings will be conducted from September 23 until the following March 31.

Mr. Roy Griffin Passes Suddenly

Mr. Roy F. Griffin, age 60, passed away suddenly Aug. 7 at his home, 713 E. Grand View. He was originally from Mason City, Iowa, but had lived in California for the past 29 years, and in Sierra Madre since 1953. Mr. Griffin was a storekeeper for Jet Propulsion Laboratories in Pasadena. He was a veteran of World War II and Korean War.

Mr. Griffin is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace M. Griffin; two daughters, Linda and Ginny, and a son, James, all of Sierra Madre. His mother, Mrs. Ruth A. Griffin of Pasadena, and brothers, Vern Griffin of Covina and Darrell Griffin of New Jersey, and his sister, Mrs. Jane Haney of Upland also are survivors.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Hugh Bell on Aug. 11, at the Rippe Mortuary Chapel. Interment was at Rose Hills Cemetery in Whittier.

between the County and its cities makes possible the development of highway projects across jurisdictional boundaries to add to the continuity and efficiency of our Countywide highway system."

He pointed out that this allocation is a portion of the $5,721,000 currently budgeted by the Board of Supervisors to assist the 76 cities in the County in the maintenance and construction of streets of general county interest. This fund is replenished annually in proportion to the amount of Gas Tax the county receives and is apportioned among the cities according to population and Master Plan mileage.

The Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County is one of the few in the state that provides financial assistance to cities from its Gas Tax Fund.

and three of our pedigreed participants wandered over to my pen. Once inside the pen, I held on—this we were allowed to do. Two of the four-footed participants wandered off the stage, so I ended up the winner with three dogs to the other gal's one."

"I'm really thrilled with my prize," Mrs. Alm went on. "Not only do I have my two girls, Karen and Diana, to sew for, but I am also leader of a group of Camp Fire Girls, whom I am teaching to sew."

Barbara is the wife of Robert Alm, the vice principal of Fairfax High School in Los Angeles.

Following the presentation, Mrs. Devonshire capably demonstrated to Mrs. Alm the many decorative stitches that could be made with her new Neco R1000 portable, showed her how simple it is to operate and how time-saving it can be in sewing not only clothing for her family but the everyday mending chores as well.

It was a happy day for deserving Mrs. Robert Alm.

Senior Citizens
Enjoy Picnic
At Arcadia July 29

Fifteen members of the Senior Citizens group joined other groups on Wednesday for the County picnic at Arcadia Recreation Park. A Luncheon was followed by various games and contests.
Raub McKim, of the local group, was a prize winner of one of the contests. The Temple City Chorus was an outstanding feature of the program and the parade of comical hats caused a lot of merriment.

September 21 will be Senior Citizens Day at the Pomona Fair and on Sept.
30 there will be a special boat trip to Catalina available to all the organizations.

Saturdays program featured Mr. Claude Vedder of West Covina with his beautiful colored slides of Yose-mite. These were followed by winter scenes taken at Palomar. Here may be found the famous observatory housing the largest telescope in the world. The observatory, situated at an elevation of 5550 feet, is noted for its clear visibility.
The reason for this is that there are no valley lights to spoil its visibility.

Henrietta Symonds read
Hal Boyle's humorous account on "Retirement."

Members joined in honoring the 46th wedding anniversary of Molly and Raub McKim by singing in chorus
"I Love You Truly," and
"When You and I Were Young Molly."

Sick members to be called upon are Tweedie Bonn, Jennie Broadgate and Mae
Brier. The death of Bonnie Church brought sadness to the organization.

Hostesses for the day were
Mrs. Martin Olsen and Mrs.
Raub McKim.

Letters To The Editor...Concern

Dear Editor:
I am responding to a letter defending the F.E.P.C. (Federal Employment Practice Commission) and Rumford Art.

I can read too! "Hog-wash!"
—A HOUSEWIFE

Dear Editor:
An open letter to "Gua-sion" and persons who agree with Communist ideology, and in the same breath claim they are not communists.

"The cynic who can see in this history only a theme for his egotistical satire is no true American, whatever his parentage, whatever his birthplace."
"He who looks with pride upon this history which his fathers have written by their heroic deeds, who accept with the inheritance which they have bequeathed to him, and who highly resolves to preserve this inheritance, unimpaired and to pass it on to his descendants enlarged and enriched, is a true American, be his birthplace, or parentage what it may."

This is an excerpt of speech of Lyman Abbott from "The Outlook," June, 1916, printed in "The Spirit of Democracy," Lyman P. Powell.

—R. dePROSE

Dear Editor:

While I am not a resident of Sierra Madre, I am hoping to become one. For some time now I have been a regular reader of the Sierra Madre News and have been particularly impressed with your forthright and certainly conservative editorials. I also compliment you for your unbiased attitude in printing letters addressed to you, even though these letters in many instances do not agree with your editorial position.

In this respect I would like to take issue with a letter which appeared in your issue of August 6, written by Jean E. Astrin, purporting to be a reply to your editorial "Learn the Truth!" of July 16 issue. Your timely editorial was in effect a quotation from Howard L. Byram, state chairman of the Committee for "Yes" on Proposition 14 to Abolish the Rumford Forced Housing Act.

I see nothing wrong with this editorial and consider it something that every sincere Californian should consider well before casting his vote for or against forced housing, next November. Freedom of choice indeed demands a "Yes" vote — yes to the initiative that will repeal the Rumford Forced Housing Act.

And now for my reply to the Astrin letter. If the writer of this letter had taken the time or the pains to "Learn the Truth" I hardly thing this letter would have been written. Here is the truth, which is indeed very contradictory to the assertions contained in the Astrin letter: 1. The only court relief for one accused of a Rumford Act violation is in the form of a judicial review, and only if requested by one found "guilty" by the FEPC. This judicial review permits no form of open trial legal defense. 2. The Rumford Housing Act makes no provision for relief of the accused by jury trial.

This letter does not purport to be a complete analysis of the vicious aspects of the Rumford Act, how the accused is in effect taken to be considered guilty until he is, without the benefit of court trial, found guilty by the FEPC. Even if the accused can finally vindicate himself he has not possible hope of relief against his accuser. Is this what we can call fairness in the American style of freedom? Yes, I, too, am a great respecter of the truth.

Dear Editor:

Your editorial of July 27 is typical of much of the misinformation that is being bandied about these days with respect to the Rumford Act and the initiative measure to nullify it. Your statement that one's home is his castle is a high-sounding phrase which I have heard since childhood, but it is not a self-evident truth as you say. The truth is that a man at home is not a king in his own castle. He is not, and never was since this country was founded nor for many, many centuries before. The ownership of property does not, as many people seem to believe, convey the absolute right to do as one jolly well pleases in, on, or about his property.

It permits him to occupy and use it, in accordance with the laws of the land, and when he is through with it to convey it by several methods, again in accordance with the laws of the land. There are thousands of laws which regulate the manner in which property may be occupied, used, and conveyed, and the Rumford Act is only one of them.

If you examine them, you will find that each one places some limitation on the owner in order to protect the general public from some abuse, or in some manner to benefit the social community. They are justifiable laws because, if you believe in our Constitution, they tend to "promote the general welfare," which is one of the purposes of good government as enumerated in the Preamble.

But back to the original theorem. The absolute title to property remains in the public domain. This is the source of the right of a government, particularly one constituted of the people themselves, to establish the conditions for the use and conveyance of property. And if the public interest so demands, it vests in the government the right and the responsibility to relieve the property owner of his interest, by due process of law and with just compensation. I know some who read this will cry "Communism," but if this is Communism then we have had Communism in this country since its inception, for these concepts go back centuries before that when the absolute ownership of all lands was with the king.

So cry as you may about the fancied abuses you pretend to suffer, and the "right" you claim to have lost, we can all be thankful it is so. For otherwise, this could still be a backward, undeveloped, frontier country sans highways, railroads, freeways, and all the public facilities that make modern community living enjoyable. And without these laws, or "rules of conduct" as they could be called, that are imposed on each of us home-owners — fire safety, health, sanitation, morals, zoning, building standards, etc., etc. — none of us could enjoy our homes as we do, safe from the injuries and abuses of others. And, oh yes! except for some of these laws, like the new Civil Rights Bill and the Rumford Act, some of our citizens could be denied the right and privilege which you and I enjoy to go and live where we choose, to compete on an equal basis for the available housing in that area of our choice.

Atomic Power: just plug it in

The big news of Southern California Edison's plans for an $87 million nuclear power plant at Camp Pendleton (see above) seemed to bring the all-electric future a giant step closer. Early in 1967 several hundred thousand Edison customers in the Southland will be "plugged in" on low-cost atom-produced electricity. It's yet another important gain in the continuing drive of the investor-owned electric companies to keep well ahead of America's needs for abundant power at the lowest possible cost. Like to know what's new for you in the atom? Please read right.

Answers to key questions about the investor-owned electric utility industry and the all-electric future

WHAT'S IN THE ATOM FOR ME?
Plenty. The mighty atom is one of today's most promising sources of the low-cost power that will make your future brighter, better, safer, more productive and much more pleasant.

WHO WAS FIRST? Edison was the first electric company in America to produce electricity commercially with atomic power from a non-military reactor.

It might surprise you to know that since way back in 1957 Edison has actually been producing power with the help of the atom at its Santa Susana experimental generating plant! So it's an eye-opening fact that some Southern California homes have already been popping toast, cooking the roast, and heating the house with clean, flameless atom-produced electricity.

The investor-owned electric companies like Edison have been moving steadily ahead with plans and plants to produce electricity with the help of nuclear fission.

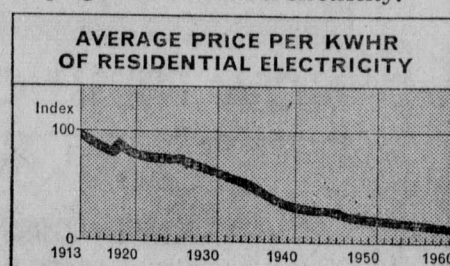

This map shows the location of 25 projects involving 125 of the nation's investor-owned light and power companies.

WHY IS EDISON CONCENTRATING ON THE ATOM? The main reason Edison and other investor-owned electric companies are so interested in the atom is that it holds the promise of almost limitless low-cost electric power.

Another reason for concentrating on the little atom is this: While America has abundant supplies of fossil fuels now (coal, oil, gas) to use in electric generating plants, these fuels are not inexhaustible, and eventually will have to be replaced.

And while we are talking about the never-ending search for sources of low-cost power, let's take a look at how well the investor-owned industry has been doing at keeping down the costs of electricity.

Through increased efficiencies, and the wide acceptance of electric living, the electric utility companies have been able to keep the cost of electricity trending downward! The chart above shows the average (national) price per kilowatt-hour of electricity for residential customers from 1913 to 1960.

Here in Central and Southern California, the record has been outstanding. The average cost of a kilowatt-hour of electricity to Edison residential customers is 28% lower today than it was in 1939.

"If any state in the Union can afford to pay its own way, it is California."

These were the words recently of California Congressman Don H. Clausen, a major spokesman for the cause of overhauling the federal tax structure. Clausen, who represents the state's sprawling First District on the North Coast, was elected largely on a campaign pledge to work for the return of tax sources now pre-empted by the federal government to local units of government for local purposes.

"For every dollar California taxpayers pay to the federal government, they get back 79 cents in services," the Crescent City Republican declared. "It is obvious to anyone that those dollars will buy a lot more in services if they are left here in the first place."

Carrying his fight to the people, Clausen has authored a resolution calling for allocation of specific tax sources to local government and has broadened it to every public body and civic organization in his district, asking their support of the reform principle. He has also contacted each of his 434 colleagues in the House of Representatives asking their backing and urging them to pass the resolution to the people of their own districts.

Clausen argues, for example, that education is primarily supported by "one of the most limited tax bases available to government," the property tax. Instead of turning now to the federal government for financial help as school needs grow, local districts would be benefitted more if federal tax sources were released to the local entities.

"It is my firm conviction that the solution of our school problems—and to many of our other problems—is to permit home rule to prevail," Clausen argued.

"We must remove tax sources from the federal government and return them to the states. The states, in turn, must overhaul their tax structures or revise revenue allocations to provide a broader tax base at the local government and school board level. These new funds could be used as a new source of revenue or relief to the ad valorem taxpayer."

To accomplish his program, Clausen pledged to work toward channelling what he termed the "great taxpayer revolt" building in the nation toward a positive program of tax overhaul—"hopefully at all levels of government."

No. 1 in Cost, Too?

If the state legislature should follow the advice given the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee recently by a research economist, most of us in California are in for some more wallet robbing.

The consultant, Dr. Alice J. Vandermeulen of UCLA, suggested that added revenue could be gleaned from increases in license fees with less offense to the average citizen than from increased taxes. Her recommended hike would affect auto drivers licenses; liquor, fishing and hunting licenses; a horde of occupational licenses ranging from those required of jockeys to trappers, bartenders to insurance salesmen.

Whether this means if followed or taxes are raised, the prospect for outgo is literally on the up and up. It's great being a citizen of the No. 1 state of the Union. But it's sure getting expensive!

Medicare Chestnut

In the fable of the cat pulling the chestnuts out of the fire for a wily friend, it was the cat that got burned, of course. The friend got the goodies.

The Administration's proposed "voluntary" Social Security medicare plan, which would offer retired pensioners the alternative of a planned 5% raise in SS benefits or the medical care provisions, has a superficial look of compromise. At a quick glance, it might well seem to meet the objections of those who oppose compulsory health insurance under Social Security.

But the chestnut bit looked reasonable to the cat, too. The gimmick in the Administration plan, of course, is that it would write into law the basic principle of health care under Social Security. Once that is done, the extension of the principle, the revision of the voluntary feature, would be comparatively simple.

The proposal should be given the closest scrutiny by Congress and the nation. It could make catspaws of a great many taxpayers.

Cartwheels Win

The silver dollar is back. At least Congress has so ordered, in its bill providing $600,000 for the minting of 45 million of the West's favorite coin. We make no pretense of knowing the full fiscal implications of this western victory over those who pleaded for more coins of the less robust variety, but in simple gratitude we'll bypass the opportunity to make some snide observation about the $600,000 cost for 45 million bucks proving the true value of today's dollar.

Some 300 volunteers who signed up with the City last winter and put in a total of 8,300 man-hours fighting the Angeles Forest fire raging in the mountains above the town, will (finally) be paid—at the rate of $1.25 an hour. This rate was recommended by the city administrator. The total tab will come to $10,404.48, and will be included in the City of Sierra Madre's $25,000 statement of emergency expenses attributable to the fire on Federal lands.

Plans are going forward for the new building to be erected by Bethany Church, according to Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor of the interdenominational church. Dr. Schaper points out that Bethany Church is a distinctly Sierra Madre project, since it receives no outside aid from any organization or denomination. For 30 years, Bethany has had the enthusiastic support of Christian people of various denominations. The present membership is 300, but with the expanding residential section, the new church will be built to seat 700 in the main sanctuary.

He also says, "In the jungle at night, there are millions of sounds and it doesn't take much to make you think it's a Jap." But he does report that the food is lots better than he expected.

Ordinances granting franchises for indeterminate periods to the Southern California Edison Co. and the Southern Counties Gas Co. were finally passed by the City Council at its last meeting and immediately signed by Mayor Froelich. Milton Steinberger has sold two Fords this past week, and reports that other "live prospects" indicate more sales soon. The promise of a substantial rebate to Ford buyers, provided the year's sales amount of 300,000 cars, has stimulated interest and made every Ford buyer a salesman, too. In spite of all the fun poked at them, the Ford cars have come into their own, and the only thing that worries many people is the fact that they see no prospect of owning one.

CARROT TOP

writing a political column for the hometown newspaper would be like striking a match to light the world. This just isn't true.

—CT—
If there is anything a politician loves it's to see his name in print, even if it is prefaced with "that %&*." There are outfits called "press clipping services" who have learned to capitalize on this quaint characteristic of politicians. There are several in the country, and they subscribe to every publication there is, both big and small.

—CT—
If J.E.T. or his political columnist calls Senator Doe a fathead, an alert reader in a clipping service will spot it and get the fathead on the phone immediately. He'll say, "Somebody called you a dirty name and for a quarter I'll tell you who it was and what he called you."

—CT—
They always fork over and sometimes if the name is a real dirty one, the service might charge up to a dollar. If the Senator is one who is frequently called names, he will save himself a lot of quarters by taking a subscription by the year to the clipping service.

—CT—
So, let us close the column for this week with the following thought... Indeed it is not easy to become a newspaper editor, especially a weekly editor. You have to work hard at it, and only after you have passed on and they bury you, do the recognize what has taken place through the editorial column of the local "Squeek." I do hope to see you around, I hope, I hope.

$275 Million Bond Issue In November

viously completed or under construction will function to their maximum effectiveness in protecting the area's 7 million residents," the Supervisor said.

The Flood Control District submitted a deficiency report to the supervisors last December 6 which was prepared in cooperation with the cities in the County and the County Engineer's office. It noted that there is a current total need for $1.2 billion in additional facilities to meet the area's drainage requirements.

Bonelli said the proposed new bond issue pares this figure down and includes only projects classified as "critical" or "urgently needed."

The list of regular projects to be built under the proposed 1964 program includes local drains, regional projects which span several communities, and some supplemental projects from the 1958 program. It also includes several supplemental regional drains which would be built only if savings result on the regular list.

As recommended, the $275 million would be broken down as follows:

—$194 million to cover estimated construction costs of regular projects.

—$27 million to meet probable price increases during the construction period.

—$38 million for engineering, overhead, and incidental expense.

—$7 million for acquiring rights of way.

—$9 million to be held in a contingency account.

Construction period for the proposed new program would run about eight years, Bonelli said.

Funds to be used for construction under the bond issue would be allotted approximately as follows: $27,325,700 for the San Gabriel Valley; $2,276,700 for the Pomona - Claremont area; $23,669,800 for the Long Beach-Whittier area in the southeast portion of the county; $16,735,500 for the Huntington Park - Montebello - Compton area; $9,450,600 for the Burbank - Pasadena area; $13,660,900 for the east San Fernando Valley and $8,558,200 for the west portion; $39,157,100 for the central Los Angeles area; $22,399,600 for the west Los Angeles - Santa Monica area; $29,939,200 for communities in the southwest portion of the County; $460,000 for the Newhall area; and $366,700 for the Little Rock area.

At its August 11 meeting, the board considered taking the legal steps necessary to place the measure on the November ballot. Should it decide to do so, it will order the Flood Control District to have 10,000 copies of part 1 of its report and 400 copies of part 2 printed. The first contains a general description of the work to be done while the second is made up of maps and profiles of the projects.

Copies of these reports must be available for inspection by interested voters at least 30 days prior to the election.

Bonelli said the new program, if approved, will follow the same format as the earlier ones. Project design will be handled by the cities and County Engineer while they will be built by private contractors on a competitive bid basis under District supervision.

Letters To The Editor...

Dear Editor:

This is a plea for an anti-noise campaign.

We think Sierra Madre is a real nice place to stay, except for the noise.

We live on Lima St. and all day long, and far into the night the terrific roar of motor bikes and squealing of brakes is hard to take.

So a suggestion without any hardship to anyone—Let's get these mufflers fixed, and slow down just a little going around corners.

Dear Editor:

As subscribers to your newspaper, we want to express our appreciation of your wide news coverage. In particular, we always look forward to your editorials, finding them thought-provoking and courageous; too, we like "Carrot-Top's" lively outlook and (I hope, I hope) humor!

We never miss reading "Freedom At Any Price." With its wealth of documented knowledge and challenging facts, thousands of readers can guarantee this column will give a good dose of anti-apathy to the indifferent Americans who need to read it!

We truly welcomed your presentation of "Meet Monrovia," by Gwenn, a few issues ago. It's a real pleasure to read well-written news about the activities of Monrovia's personalities! Another dividend for your readers.

It's vacation-time and millions of cars are crowding our nation's streets and highways. Don't spoil your vacation, or anyone else's, through a traffic accident. Drive safely and attentively at all times. Observe every traffic regulation. And be sure your car is thoroughly safety-checked before you drive too.

WE URGE EACH OF YOU TO DRIVE WITH EXTREME CAUTION -- DON'T GAMBLE WITH YOUR LIFE OR THAT OF OTHERS!

A FEW SAFETY POINTERS:

- Give a signal for every move, and give ample time for others to act.
- Don't drive more than an hour without stopping to stretch your legs.
- If you need a map to guide you, give the navigation duties to passenger.
- Drive with extra caution wherever there may be any children at play.
- Carry emergency warning flares in car for unexpected roadside breakdowns.
- Parents, teach children bicycle safety rules.

SPORTS AS Hank Ives SEES IT

DATLINE, PHILADELPHIA
Just like all big cities, Philadelphia has its growing pains and integration problems. However, the problem does not exist on the Phillies, where rookie third baseman, Richie Allen, is pacing the Quaker City nine to a possible National League pennant.

Nor does the problem exist on the Philadelphia Eagles, who are hoping that huge tackle, Bob Brown from Nebraska, may be the answer to their offensive line situation.

FOLKS all over Pennsylvania are rooting and "talking it up" for the Phils. They think Gene Mauch would make a good running mate for President Lyndon Johnson in the coming election.

MAUCH is doing a great job with a team that is short on power, has little right-handed hitting, no regular first baseman and a .200 hitting shortstop. Man for man, the Phils should be no match for the Giants, yet continue to hang doggedly in first place.

RICHELLE ALLEN looks like a cinch for rookie-of-the-year honors in the N.L. Jim Bunning is the bellweather of the pitching staff. Dennis Bennett, who looked like a 20-game winner early in the campaign, is suffering the same woes as Steve Barber, Ken McBride, Bill Monbouquette, Ernie Broglio and others. He can't get anyone out.

DOWN IN BALTIMORE the city is pennant-hungry. Hank Bauer's Orioles are hanging tough. Brooks Robinson is looking like the most valuable player in the league. (Old Hankus picked him for the MVP in his pre-season prognostication.)

EASTERNERS would be tickled to death with a Phils-Orioles World Series, and it darned well could happen. The Phils beat the O's twice in exhibition games. I just threw that in for the morning line makers.

FOLLOWERS of the Philadelphia Eagles are looking for vast improvement in last year's 2-10-2 record. Joe Kuharich has come up with a "new look" eleven. Fifteen new men dot the roster. The team even has a new owner in millionaire Jerry Wolman.

OLLIE MATSON is running with the second unit after getting traded from Detroit. Norm Snead looks like a dandy QB. More mature—and passing behind what looks like a tough line may surpass Sonny Jurgensen who was swapped to the Redskins.

NOTES ON THE EASTERN FRONT... Pennsylvania farmers should pay Old Hankus to come back. Lots and lots and lots of rain for the crops. Nothing like getting rained right off the golf course. Speaking of golf... courses are plentiful and far from crowded... most of them are in excellent shape. Fishing, of course, is lousy when Old Hankus makes the scene. The carp in the big rivers run three feet long. Catfish are plentiful. Westerners would enjoy fishing with doughballs, the bait used for carp and catfish.

Alvin Dark is on the hot seat. Oh well, the Giants recently released a pretty fair manager—Bill Rigney. Dark won't have any trouble getting another spot if he gets the can tied to him. Probably the Reds would snap him up in a hurry if Fred Hutchinson can't continue.

Joe Cronin looks like a cinch to replace Ford Frick as commissioner of baseball after the latter retires. Pennsylvania high school kids whipped a group from Texas in a grid tilt.

Vacation Plan

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baumann recently returned from a wonderful eleven-week trip to Europe. Flying via New York City, where they stopped for four days to see the World's Fair, then on to Scotland. They spent the next two weeks in Edinburgh where they attended the International Congress on Large Dams, at which time Mr. Baumann presented a paper. Their son, Paul, from San Francisco, joined them in Scotland for five weeks of touring in Europe. They spent the first week in England, then flew to Stuttgart, Germany to pick up a car. In their new car they drove all over Europe, including among the 12 countries in their tour, France, Belgium, Italy, Switzerland, etc. They ended their delightful trip in the Hague, where they shipped the car home, and then flew from Amsterdam to London to Los Angeles.

Annual Kiwanis Charity Baseball

Crippled and underprivileged children will benefit from the 25th annual Kiwanis charity baseball game Tuesday night, Aug. 18, between the Los Angeles Dodgers and Milwaukee Braves at Dodger Stadium.

Hap Halligan, event chairman of the sponsoring Kiwanis Crippled Children Foundation of West Hollywood, reports that a few choice tickets are still available through any one of 150 local area Kiwanis Clubs or by telephoning BR. 2-3400.

Proceeds from Kiwanis-sold tickets will provide urgently needed eye operations, arm and leg braces, artificial limbs, maintenance of beds at Orthopaedic Hospital and other medical care for children of all races, colors and creeds, Halligan pointed out.

In addition, each participating Kiwanis Club gains funds from ticket sales for local area youth projects.

All cases handled by the Foundation are continued until complete rehabilitation is achieved. Some children have received care and treatment through the Foundation for more than 12 years.

Recent benefit games have enabled the Foundation and individual Kiwanis Clubs to aid some 200 crippled and underprivileged children a year.

The contest will be a regular National League game. In pre-game ceremonies, several youngsters currently being treated through Kiwanis, will "take-the-field" with Dodger starters.

Mrs. C. Fearney Succumbs Aug. 4

Mrs. Marguerite P. Fearney passed away in San Diego on Aug. 4, in a local hospital.

Mrs. Fearney had lived in Pasadena for more than ten years and in Sierra Madre for the last 12 years prior to moving to San Diego two months ago. She lived at 46 S. Lima in Sierra Madre.

Survivors include her husband, Charles Fearney, and two daughters, Dorothy Fearney of San Diego and Mrs. Natalie Babcock of Attleboro, Mass., and two grandchildren.

Services were in Attleboro, Mass., and the interment was in the family plot in Elm Grove Cemetery, Allenton, Long Island.

Letters To The Editor...

Dear Editor

Open letter to my fellow Americans: Relax! Go back to sleep! A note of warning—the forces of evil abound in the land. Don't read "A Texan Looks at Lyndon." Or "None Dare Call It Treason." Or "A Choice Not an Echo." Above all, don't tell anyone else about them. Don't distribute them. Keep real quiet and Goldwater won't stand a chance in November.

Bye, eye, eye!

Natural Beauty that Endures

Rose Hills is renowned as Southern California's most spacious and naturally beautiful Memorial Park. FIFTY YEARS of careful planning and care have resulted in a lovely setting, with gentle slopes and green hillsides looking to the majestic San Gabriel mountains. And Rose Hills will continue to grow more beautiful because of the government-supervised Endowment Care Fund. The famous Pageant of Roses garden at Rose Hills is one of the most striking displays of floral magnificence to be seen anywhere in the Nation. Thousands of roses in hundreds of varieties provide an impact of color and fragrance that is truly unforgettable. An exquisite and rare Japanese Garden; lovely camellias in season; a great panorama of assorted flowers, shrubs and trees; Chapels and other structures that blend with the mood of natural grandeur—Rose Hills has all these and more.

Is this too much beauty? Not in the opinion of thousands of families who want this serene and comforting retreat for solace and inspiration. Certainly not when it is remembered that at Rose Hills so much more—costs no more. Beauty is an extra value at Rose Hills. All cemetery and mortuary services are available at this one convenient place—and so much more, costs no more.

Notice Regarding Telephone Charges

A portion of the telephone charges you now pay may be subject to refund if a decision of the California Public Utilities Commission is sustained on Court review. The operative effect of this decision is now stayed pending Court review and no refunds will be made at this time. During the period of the stay the Company will maintain the necessary records to make refunds possible for services billed to your home or business.

However, in order for you to make claims for refunds on Long Distance calls paid for at coin box telephones or at hotels or motels, it will be necessary for you to maintain a personal record of such calls. Calls subject to possible refund are the following calls between points within the State of California:

Daytime station-to-station calls (between 4:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.) costing 70¢ or more for the initial period.

Night and Sunday station-to-station calls (from 6 p.m. to 4:30 a.m.) costing 60¢ or more for the initial period.

Person-to-person calls costing 45¢ or more for the initial period.

In most cases the amount of refund would be 5¢ or 10¢ for the initial period, with additional amounts applying to certain overtime charges.

Records you keep for coin box, hotel and motel calls to points within the State of California should include:

1. Telephone number from which you made the call, including the Area Code.
2. Telephone number you called, including the Area Code.
3. Date and time of day.
4. Whether the call was station-to-station or person-to-person.
5. Amount paid for the call.
6. Name of hotel or motel, where involved.

The method of making refunds for calls from coin box telephones and from telephones in hotel and motel rooms, if refunds become due, will be specified in public notices.

There is very little to be cheerful about in this a-grinding world of ours, if you believe everything you read in the daily chronicles. The scope of misery encompasses everything from war, murder, taxes, racial strife, bond issues, politics, and a general unrest that defies any solution. But in all of this mire and muck of human strife, there remains one shining hope, one ray of sunshine that is as dependable as time itself. She is "Little Orphan Annie." Through war and peace she goes through life with "Sandy," doing her good works with neatness and diplomacy, warding off evil with her pure heart and willing spirit. She never wavers in her moral standards and in spite of the overwhelming odds she never allows bitterness to color her life.

It's impossible, I know, to emulate her approach to life, but it is refreshing to know that someplace on this earth there is a little paper girl that is sponsored by a man who at least thinks this way, and in this day and age, that "ain't" easy to do!

Thursday is the day Mrs. Joseph Mangan has chosen to have a get-acquainted morning coffee klatch. The original idea of the get-together was to introduce one of our newcomers, Mrs. Robert McClean, to the rest of the street. As it happens, there are so many new people who have or are moving in on Old House Road, it was an excellent opportunity for her to invite all of the newcomers. She gave me a list of those she had invited to date, but knowing Molly, she has probably invited several more that I will not have. On the list were Mmes. Howard Owen, David St. John, Hugh Liv-

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Hanseen are welcome new neighbors at 1590 Old House Road. They bought the home formerly owned by the Sam Matloffs. They have three children. Their eldest daughter is Jill, who will be a senior at PHS this September; 15-year-old Jane has been chosen to be on the drill team, and their 10-year-old son, Rook, will be attending Eugene Field School. They are all interested in music and are taking guitar lessons.

Mr. Hanseen is the manager of the Wilsire office of New York Life Insurance Company.

Familywise, they all enjoy the use of the pool. Both the Hanseens enjoy bridge and golf, but their most pressing hobby for the next few months will be the remodeling of their home, in between entertaining house-guests.

Much excitement at the George Wenger household these days. They had barely unpacked from the San Francisco Republican convention when Joyce got a call from Assemblyman Frank J. Lanterman appointing her to the Republican State Central Committee, along with Elaine Dawes of Chapman Woods. As president of the East Pasadena-Sierra Madre Women's Club, Joyce has made three trips in the past four months for the GOP, the third one in April when she attended the Republican Women's Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C.

Before leaving for the last conference in San Francisco she invited all of her board members to a post-convention supper which she had last Thursday evening in their patio that had been gaily decorated with red, white and blue flowers, and dozens of placards from the Cow Palace. Inasmuch as it was also the Wengers' 15th wedding anniversary, the guests presented them with a beautiful carved elephant.

The guests were Joyce and Stuart Zuck, Marilyn and Bill Pursley, Elaine and Buzz Dewees, Robbie and Al Pruitt, Dorothy and Ken Ford, Lucy and Jim Dodger, Jane and Jim Smith, Jayne and Ross Tyree, Jean and John Veblen, Yvonne Holman and Betty Hurtig.

Five years ago, Mexico's San Carlos Canyon in Baja California was an arid dust bowl dotted with ramshackled huts.

The community was called Chapingo, and although it lay only 75 miles south of the U.S. border, its citizens died wholesale of malnutrition and tuberculosis.

Water for drinking was carried by bucket for nearly a mile; crops were poor and inadequate; an occasional goat, some chickens and a mangy dog roamed the site; clusters of ragged children played in the dirt.

This was the sight which greeted two Americans on a weekend missionary journey in the spring of 1959. The visitors were Dr. B. H. Pearson and Kenneth Stroman, members of Mexican Fellowship, Incorporated.

Stroman returned again and again from his home in Los Angeles. He took hybrid seed for corn, marshaled facilities and arranged to clothe and feed Chapingo's many destitute children and orphans through the Mexican Fellowship program.

This weekend, Aug. 15 and 16, ten Lions Club members and their wives will travel to the new development site which is named Centro de Amparo (Center of Refuge). Numerous items of clothing and some food will be distributed.

New Classes Offered In Dog Training

The Santa Anita Dog Training Group will start new classes this week in all three of its locations, Arcadia, El Monte and West Covina. These classes are very popular at this time of the year during the cool of the evening. Any dog five months and older may be enrolled.

The class in Arcadia County Park will start on Monday evening, Aug. 17, at 7 o'clock—the one in El Monte will start on Tuesday evening, Aug. 18, at 8, and the one in West Covina will start on Wednesday evening, Aug. 18, at 7 o'clock. For further information as to exact location, please call Hillcrest 6-6858 or ELliott 9, 1481.

Assessment Roll For '64 Reported

County Assessor Philip E. Watson, delivering the 1964 assessment roll to County Auditor Roscoe Hollinger, reported that the total net value on the roll was $12,273,735.815.

This represents an increase of $65,714,359 over the net value on the 1963 assessment roll and an increase of $11,858,970 over the preliminary values reported by Watson on July 20. The bulk of the $11.8 million came in the personal property column of the roll.

Watson also reported a total of $3,169,925,710 in solvent credits, an increase of $14,428,070 over his preliminary total.

Final figures on aircraft show $41,249,930, a drop of $1,188,480 from the preliminary total.

Watson expressed satisfaction at having requested a month extension from the State Board of Equalization on delivery of the assessment roll.

"While the difference between our preliminary and final figures is relatively slight, the extension allowed us to undertake an internal audit of the roll which did turn up some changes," he said.

who loaned the $144,000,000

To build the house...

that paid the wages...

of 23,500 workers last year?

CALIFORNIA FEDERAL DID.

Our business is the betterment of people.

The usual "share the wealth" schemes turn out to be miserable failures. But there's one plan that works. Our plan. It helps create prosperity—and some of it rubs off on everyone. Last year, for example, the equivalent of a small city of new homes and apartments was built with $144,000,000 in financing provided by California Federal Savings Association. (That was only the amount loaned for new construction. Our 1963 mortgage lending total exceeded $335,818,000!) These funds gave full-time work and paychecks to 11,000 building and allied industry workers, and to 12,500 other people in businesses and services where construction wages were spent. In addition, this prosperity was shared by 412,000 savers who received $37,000,000 in dividends from their California Federal savings accounts. Directly or indirectly, you shared the good times California Federal helped generate, too. That's why we say the betterment of people is our business. And it's a billion-dollar business.

Letters To the Editor . . .

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it.—(similar words of Voltaire)

Hear tell some folks are a mite confused about now to vote on Proposition 14. Can't blame 'em any. Considering that Stanley Mosk and "stetch" - of - fascism Brown want the Rumford Act to stay on the books, no means yes, and yes means no.

It figures. Since they can't entice the people into their camp of blubbery liberalism with sound arguments and convincing proof of the workability of the law, they are now trying to slicker 'em with reverse English, by spending huge sums of taxpayer funds and by labeling those opposed to the Act as bigots, racists and that ever-popular epithet, extremists.

Don't be misled! YES ON 14 REPEALS THIS INSANE LAW which forces a man to sell or rent his property to another whether he wants to or not. Bet more than one NO sticker I've seen around town will shame facedly come off pronto.

Only trouble is, will it be replaced with a YES bumper banner? I doubt it.

I CAN'T GIVE AWAY YES STICKERS TO PEOPLE WHO ARE VEHEMENTLY AGAINST THE RUMFORD ACT BECAUSE THEY FEAR PHYSICAL RETALIATION by others deluded into thinking forced integration is true integration. And you can't blame 'em for their reluctance, because their fears are founded in fact.

A YES sticker has meant a mysteriously creased

Let's not finish last, and let's not finish first. Let's get this integration problem out of the legislatures, out of the courts, and above all, out of Brown's hands. That way, God willing, and is we ALL work hard at it, the Colored, Oriental, Mexican, Jew, Polack and maybe even the White, if he's lucky, will finish EQUAL.

FLOURNOY REPORT

by Assemblyman
Houston I. Flounoy
49th ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

California's recently enacted school finance bill represents an attempt by the Legislature to proceed toward three distinct goals: increased financial support, improved district organization, and smaller class size.

Initially, the bill grants a $50 million increase in state support to our schools for the 1964-65 school year. The bulk of this money will be allocated to all school districts, except those with exceptional local resources, through a $10 per student increase in equalization assistance. This action recognizes that the state has failed to keep pace with the rising costs of education over the past few years, and that the resulting burden on the property taxpayers has become heavy and inequitable.

Secondly, an additional amount of state assistance has been voted for the 1965-66 school year—potentially up to $70 million—to those school districts which are "unified school districts."

It is almost universally agreed that with 1,600 districts, California has too many small, separate administrative units for equitable financing, or adequate educational programming. By limiting participation in this additional $15 per student program to those districts which operate a 1st through 12th grade program, the Legislature is openly encouraging the reduction of the number of districts and the unification of separate elementary and high school districts.

It should be emphasized that although the bill originally contained various mandatory provisions, it was amended so that the ultimate decision on unification and reorganization rests with the voters within the affected districts.

Finally, the bill set in motion a program to reduce the class size in the primary grades, 1-3, to no more than 30 pupils per class by the year 1969. Based on the conviction that large classes are a primary factor in nullifying teacher effectiveness, the Legislature approved a special allocation of $10 per child in these grades, starting this year. It also established a penalty for those districts which do not reduce these class sizes to at least 33 in 1965-66. For once, the state has recognized the financial implications of a new state requirement. In the process of accomplishing these three goals, one problem already has arisen. Inadvertently, a penalty has been imposed on those districts which have recently unified. Under the bill, pre-existing bonuses were repealed, causing districts unified within the past five years to lose their additional support. As a member of the Committee on Education, I have prepared legislation to correct this error and have been assured that the oversight can be corrected early in the general session, restoring these funds for the present school year.

It may well be that further requirements will be necessary as the law takes effect. However, a significant start has been made toward resolving some of education's knottiest problems.

Meet Monrovia . . . by GWENN

Happy homecoming to the Meyers! After 15 years of living in various places such as Michigan and Toronto, Canada, Violet, Stephen and their two sons have returned and bought the Workman home on Melrose Ave. Had a wonderful visit with Vi, who says that our town has changed, but the warm, friendly people are just the same. They feel as though they had never left, especially since Stephen was employed by Bud Miller Ford in 1951, and now has returned as general manager for the same company. We are very happy to welcome this charming family.

June and Ev Millard enjoyed their jaunt to Kernville staying at the Inn and dining in the famous Ewing's Restaurant. They just missed the on-location filming of a Bonanza episode, "The Hostages," which will be seen on television in the fall. The natives were all abuzz about the temperamental movie people. Other than her remark on the heat in that area, June's only comment was that she thoroughly enjoyed watching the fishermen along the Kern River, decked out in rod, reel, straw hats and kilins. Quite a picture, and they were catching fish, too.

Bill and Betty Wilkinson, daughters Susan and Nancy and their friend, Julie Schenke, recently returned from their three-week trip to Canada, where they enjoyed the grandeur and incredible beauty of the Canadian Rockies, returning by way of Vancouver Island, B.C., and down the coast to visit San Francisco. The original intention was to camp out, but the abundance of rain changed their plans somewhat.

Louise Kortkamp,
Former Resident,
Succumbs Aug. 6

Mrs. Louise R. Kortkamp, age 70, passed away August 6 after a lengthy illness. She was originally from Missouri but had lived in California for the past 48 years. In 1939 she moved to Sierra Madre where she was a member of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church, a past president of the Woman's Club, a member of the Lady Lions and took part in many other civic activities.

Five years ago, Mrs. Kortkamp moved to the Lucerne Valley, where her husband, Mr. Percy C. Kortkamp survives her. Other survivors include two sons, Glenn Burris of Baltimore, Maryland, and Robert Burris of Napa, Calif. Also a stepson, Perry R. Kortkamp of Pasadena, and a stepdaughter, Miss Moreland Kortkamp of Houston, Texas. Mrs. Kortkamp's brothers and sisters are: Patterson R. McGee, Mrs. Clara Pitts, and Charles McGee, all of Missoula, Montana. And Mrs. Mabel Wright and Mrs. Ida Vineyard of Mojave, Calif. She is also survived by five grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. George Lindsay on August 10 at the Ripple Mortuary Chapel.

gio have entertained various houseguests this summer. Their niece, Barbara Crimi, arrived from Milwaukee, Wis., and has decided to stay and make this her new home. Also, Marylynn Hyatt came to visit from Phoenix, Ariz. She is a former Monrovia and schoolmate of Theresa's. The DiMaggios are planning a vacation to Big Bear for later in the summer.

The many friends of Ron Scott, son of Stan and Ruby Scott, who joined the U.S. Naval Air Reserve on July 1, and finished boot training in Memphis, Tenn., and his parents are anxiously waiting word of his next move. See you next week.

Everyone at the Sierra Madre News will miss Jody Beavers when she takes her vacation in Northern California. She and her husband, Bill, with their two daughters Bonnie and Susie have planned a touring vacation trip this summer. They are all looking forward to visiting Sequoia National Park, Yosemite, San Francisco, and Carmel; and if time permits, they may extend their tour on up through Oregon.

Dr. G. W. Griffin, Chemistry Expert, Gives Lectures

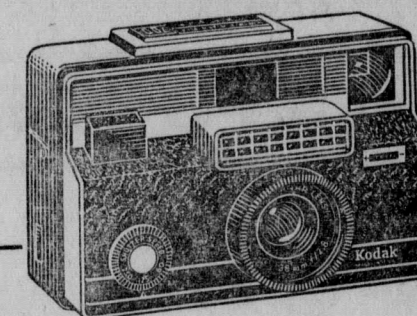

Dr. Gary W. Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Griffin of Sierra Madre, recently returned from a two week trip to Europe where he participated in the International Symposium on Photochemistry in Strasbourg, France. Dr. Griffin, associate professor of Chemistry at Tulane University, also conducted a series of lectures in Germany.

The 5 day symposium dealt with the effects of light on molecules in both organic and inorganic systems. In his lectures, Dr. Griffin discussed "The Photochemistry of Small-Ring Systems"—the effect of light on small highly strained organic systems. He also lectured at the Technische Hochschule in Karlsruhe, Germany; the Organisch-Chemischen Instituts der Universitat in Mainz and at the University of Berlin.

Dr. Griffin with his wife, Carol and their little daughter, Cheryl Lee, will be arriving from New Orleans this weekend to spend about three weeks in California. They'll be visiting the senior Griffins and Carol's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zuerlein, in Sierra Madre, and will also be taking a vacation at the beach.
